POLICE REPORT

Acting Chief Grossman came by to introduce himself to residents and to answer any questions that they may have.

Sgt. Brown was on hand to talk about the police statistics as well as address any concerns from residents. He said Carrollton Park security survey results scheduled for this meeting will be rescheduled and hopefully presented at the next meeting. He also told residents that there was a graffiti arrest and they are still looking for another. He reminded residents to please lock their garages and cars as thefts still continue to be an issue. A resident asked if Carrollton Park can still be an area for extra patrols as they are still seeing activity.

Sgt. Brown also talked about the department transfers and the new marijuana law.

- Resident said there is graffiti in the pavilion at Carrollton Park – report has been taken by FPD
- Speeding on Prospect still a concern

NEW BUSINESS:

- Katie Nash from CALM was supposed to attend but had a family scheduling issue. Michele Bowman told the group about the services that CALM provides free of charge and Katie will attend a future meeting.
- There was a metal slide taken out of Carrollton Park will it be replaced? Roelkey Myers Deputy Director of Parks & Recreation said it was not slated to be replaced. It was an older piece of equipment and new equipment was recently brought in.
- People are leaving their trash cans out on the street on Carrollton Drive near the church. Can DPW or CE enforce them putting it back?
